Subject: Brief Meeting?

Hello Jeff,

Sorry to bother you again, but as you may recall, I had asked you for a recommendation for potential AI in higher education conferences and you had suggested UCF (which I plan to attend next year - thanks again!).

I am in the very early stages of planning to write a dissertation on policy building or possibly regulatory compliance in AI and higher education and I was wondering if you would be open to having a very brief, in-person or virtual meeting, on your thoughts/perspectives. I can't imagine a more qualified person to have a discussion with on this subject.

If you are willing, I would be happy to accommodate whatever date/time is best for you!
